There are still ominous rumblings on the Pacific coast.

You have a chance to do something, even though it be small.

There is little doubt that it will be a much travelled road to South Barre this summer.

The large Methodist churches of the state will welcome their pastor back quite generally.

 coming East nowadays are making

A wet place in East Barre, another in Granville, and one in the little village of South Barre.

 tion of $5,000 nearly gave heart failure to those who are acquainted with the New York millionaire.

Here is an Iowa idea: The state board of health has passed an order prohibiting all persons affected with tuberculosis from attending the schools and colleges, and the mandate has just been declared enforceable. That is attacking the disease in drastic manner.

And now some Rutland boys are practicing hanging, "just to see how it feels." The prospects are that before they reach the actual hanging age there will be no such law on the statute books of Vermont, so that the training will be entirely lost.

BARRE'S RELIEF FUND.

It is confidently expected that there will be a general support of the local movement, inaugurated last night, toward raising a California relief fund. The active work has been placed in the hands of five men, who will distribute blanks through every part of the city. These men are Mayor Barclay, Alexander Ironside, Patrick F. McCarthy, Charles S. Wallace, and James Mackay. All money collected will be paid to the secretary of the relief committee, City Clerk Mackay, and all checks should be made out to his name.
 All of these gentlemen are well known to nearly every one of our citizens.
 There should be a hearty response to them or to those whom they shall authorize to collect in the name of the committee. Citizens will expedite the work if they will take the pains to
